The Spelling task pane on the right shows the error: "Electroni" is not in the dictionary. Suggestions include "Electronic", "Electron", and "Electrons".

The screenshot shows the same Excel spreadsheet as above, but with the duplicates removed. The data is now sorted by Product ID, and the Spelling task pane on the right shows a large green checkmark and the message: "All spellings are perfect. Spell Check complete on selected range. You are good to go!"
